6. Matters arising

Vandalism at Cochrane st, Secretary reported the vandalism and contacted ERC

The CCTV camera in Cross Arthurlie st is fully functional, they had already reoffered the incident to Police Scotland for action, Police also contacted Secretary to say the vandalism happened a while back and the team were aware of the incident. Camera on Main st is also fully functional.

When a report is made to Police Scotland, either by us or anyone else, the police will decide whether they require CCTV evidence as part of their investigation. They will then make a formal request to us to review the CCTV recordings and we will provide police with a copy of any relevant images.
