

Council Tax Discount - Carer

Council Tax charge is based on two adults living in a property. If there are less than two adults in the property you may be eligible for a Council Tax discount. An adult resident who is a carer and meets one of the qualifying conditions below can be excluded when counting the number of adults in the property:

- If you provide care or support on behalf of a Local Authority or charity for at least 24 hours per week, for which you are paid no more than £30 per week, and you live in premises provided by the Local Authority or charity for the better performance of their work.
- If you provide care or support to your employer, who has been referred by a charity, for at least 24 hours per week, for which you are paid no more than £36 per week, and you live in premises provided by your employer for the better performance of their work.
- If you provide care or support, for an average of at least 35 hours per week, to someone in receipt of at least one of the state benefits listed below and you live in the same house, excluding their spouse/ partner or a child under the age of 18.
 - Higher rate of Attendance Allowance or care component of Disability Living Allowance.
 - An increase in constant Attendance Allowance under the industrial injuries or war pensions scheme.
 - The highest rate of constant attendance allowance payable on top of full rate disablement benefit paid in respect of an industrial Injury.
 - Adult Disability Payment

What evidence do I need to provide?

- A copy of your Benefit award letter from Department of Work and Pensions
- Enclose a compliment slip or a sheet of company headed paper from your employer.
